Annual Conference 2014
The Added Value of Clinical Neuropsychology
Friday 28th November 2014, Holiday Inn London, Regents Park

09:00 Arrival, Coffee & Registration

09:30 Welcome from the DoN Chair
Dr Peter Rankin

09:45 Adult Keynote Address: Positive psychotherapy – what the science of happiness has to offer clinical neuropsychology
Professor Jon Evans (University of Glasgow)
(Convened by Dr Phil Yates)

10:35 Paediatric Keynote Address: Interventions to promote behavioural recovery following acquired brain injury: The role of the family
Professor Shari Wade (Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Centre, USA)
(Convened by Dr Liam Dorris)

11:35 Refreshment Break, exhibition and poster viewing

11:55 Older Adult Keynote Address: From diagnosis to rehabilitation: trying to develop care pathways in neuropsychology
Professor Glyn Humphreys (University of Oxford)
(Convened by Dr Rebecca Poz)

12:45 Lunch, exhibition and poster viewing
13:30 BPS Division of Neuropsychology 2014 Annual General Meeting

14:15 Parallel afternoon sessions

1. Paediatric Session: Tailoring interventions following ABI to functional impairments Tailoring interventions following ABI to functional impairments
Professor Shari Wade
(Convened by Dr Liam Dorris)

2. Adult Session: Neuropsychotherapies – which add most value?
   i. Acceptance and Commitment Therapy
      Dr Hamish McLeod
   ii. Compassion Focused Therapy
      Dr Fiona Ashworth
   iii. Emotion Focused Couples Therapy
      Dr Giles Yeates
   iv. Narrative approaches
      Dr Stephen Weatherhead
(Convened by Professor Jon Evans)

3. Older Adult Session: Neuropsychological rehabilitation for older people
   i. Neuropsychological assessment, rehabilitation strategies and vascular dementia
      Dr Sylvia Dillon
   ii. The role of Clinical Neuropsychological intuition in the design and development of cognitive assessment tools
      Dr Craig Newman
   iii. The Admiral, the Psychologist and the Museum; a clinical case study of using rehabilitation in Frontotemporal Dementia
      Dr Adrian Leddy
(Convened by Dr Rebecca Poz)

16:15 CLOSE
BPS Faculty of Paediatric Neuropsychology 2014 AGM