Northern Ireland Branch of the British Psychological Society 2018 Annual Conference: Psychology & Identity

Professor Viren Swami - Keynote Speaker

We are delighted to announce Professor Viren Swami, Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge as our keynote speaker on ‘Are we all thin enough yet? The globalisation of the thin ideal and the homogenisation of beauty’

Viren Swami is Professor of Social Psychology at the Department of Psychology, Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge. He is author of Attraction Explained: The Science of How We Form Relationships and The Missing Arms of Venus de Milo, and has authored or co-authored over 200 peer-reviewed papers. His areas of specialism include cross-cultural aspects of body image and human appearance, as well as the psychology of conspiracy theories.

https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Viren_Swami